

Under the General Director, the TRA is divided into five units. These provide a range of specialist advice and expertise on different aspects of telecommunications matters as well as general support functions for the Authority. The structure is shown in Figure 1.

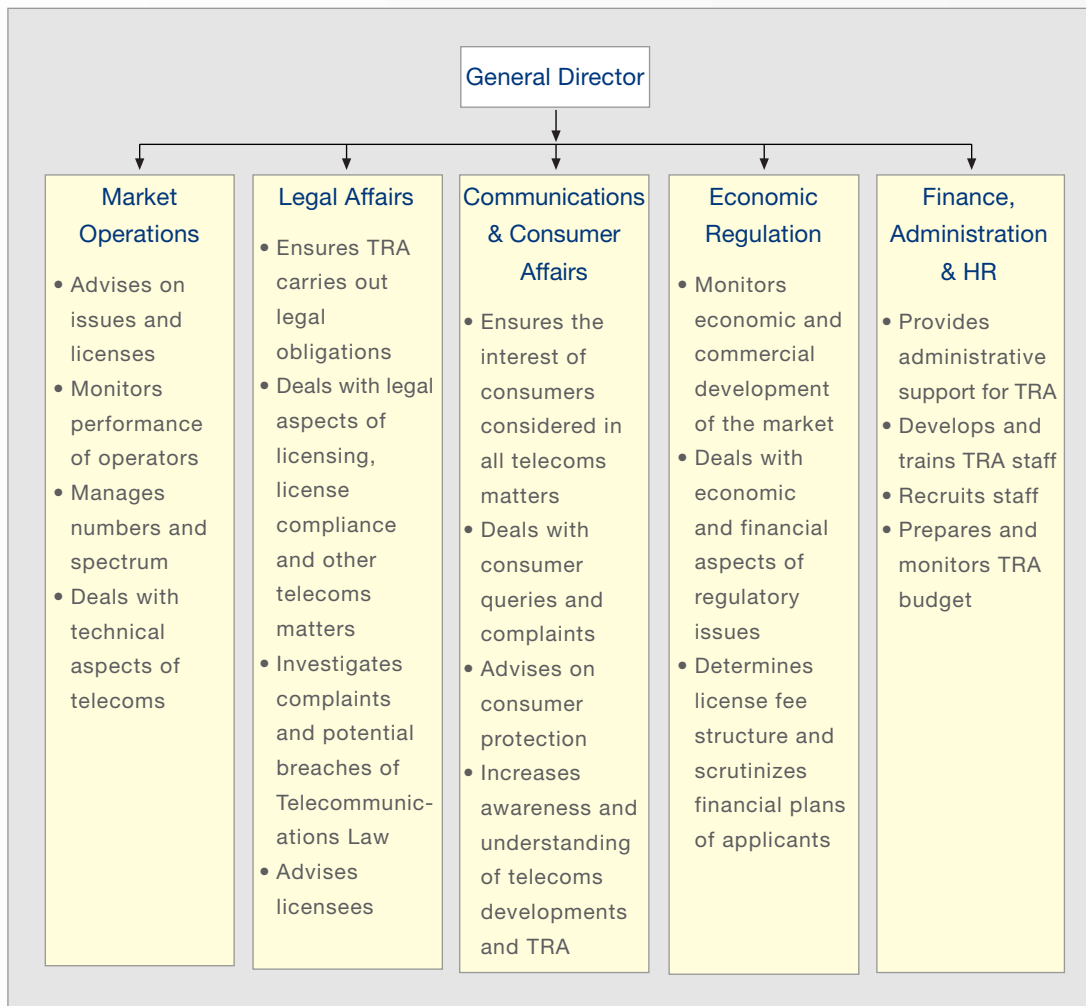

Figure 1: The structure of the TRA

The structure of the TRA