TRA in the Fast Lane

Thursday, December 13, 2007

The Telecommunications Regulatory Authority (TRA) staff and their families enjoyed the end of year celebrations at the BIC carting centre on 10 December 2007.

More than 20 of the TRA team took part in an endurance relay race. The mixed ability group all found enjoyment in not only racing but also in team working and changing of roles. At the end of the evening, it was a tight run event with a lot of close encounters. There were only differences of seconds between the winning and losing teams.

Commenting on the event Mr. Alan Horne the General Director said “it was great to see all TRA staff working as hard in their leisure as they do at work. We all thank the staff at BIC carting and catering for making our evening not only pleasurable but also safe”.
