

Press Statement

TRA Art Competition Deadline Extended to 9 May 2011

Manama, Kingdom of Bahrain - Saturday 26 March 2011

The Telecommunications Regulatory Authority (TRA) has extended the deadline for its second Annual Art Competition from 31 March 2011 to 9 May 2011 to allow wider participation which would complement and foster TRA's Online Safety initiative in Bahrain and enable more participation from all students at schools and universities.

TRA would like to take this opportunity to thank all those who have registered to the Second Annual TRA Art Competition on Online Safety and would like to encourage those who are yet to register to do so through TRA website at www.tra.bh.

TRA's Director of Communications and Consumer Affairs Mr. Basil Al Arrayed said "As a forerunner in the region to address the subject of Online Safety, TRA's main objective of this year's Art Competition is to raise awareness of Online Safety that has become a subject of growing concern in recent years."

TRA has already received pieces of art submitted by some schools and universities and would be glad to receive participants' art work(s) during the extended period (from 31st March – 9th May 2011) in TRA's office or through the Ministry of Education.

For more information on the Art Competition, please visit us at www.tra.bh

About TRA

Since its establishment in 2002 the Telecommunications Regulatory Authority of the Kingdom of Bahrain (TRA) has been working with government, consumers, operators and investors to develop the Kingdom of Bahrain into the region's most modern communications hub and to facilitate the growth of the market. As an exemplary Regulator for the region, TRA independently carries out its duties in a transparent and non-discriminatory manner. More information about TRA can be viewed at www.tra.org.bh