TRA's Art Competition on "Online Safety" Rescheduled

Last date for submission 8th September 2011.

Manama, Kingdom of Bahrain – Sunday, 8 May 2011

The Telecommunications Regulatory Authority (TRA) today has announced an extension to its Art Competition to the 8th of September 2011. Originally set to conclude on the 9th of May 2011 in light of busy schedules at schools and universities.

TRA's Communications and Consumer Affairs Director Mr. Basil Al Arrayed stated "After careful consideration and in an effort to encourage wider participation, with fair opportunity to all, this extension is imperative. We are aware that schools are extremely pushed for time to complete their syllabus for the academic year and have not been able to set aside adequate time for active participation in extracurricular activities. This extension would give both teachers, students and parents the summer vacation when more time can be exclusively dedicated to the Art Competition."

By this new deadline artworks will need to be submitted by September 8th and the results will be announced at an awarding ceremony to be held towards the end of September 2011.
